

Brian K. Overman

Associate AIA

Professional Experience	1988-present	Luzerne County Comm. College, Assistant Professor
	1988-present	Luzerne County Comm. College, Coordinator, Engineering Tech.
	1996-present	C. Allen Mullins architect, Associate Architect
	1993-1996	Construction Consultant, Luzerne County Comm. College
	1992-1996	Architectural Design, Mullins & Weida, Architect and Associate

Committees	Institutional Development Committee
	Campus Construction Committee
	College Senate
	Academic Audit Committee
	President's Advisory Council for Faculty Issues and Instruction
	Special Committee on Promotion
	Promotion Committee
	Instructional Technology Committee
Faculty Representative Council

Education	Savannah College of Art and Design, Grad. credits in Historical Preservation, 1997
	Pennsylvania State University, Grad. credits in Vocational & Industrial Edu., 1994
	Temple University, Bachelor of Science in Architecture, 1987
	Luzerne County Community College, Architectural Engineering Technology, 1983

Awards / Affiliations	The American Institute of Architects Member, 1991-present
	National Chapter of the American Institute of Architects, Executive Board Member, 2002-2006
	Wyoming Valley Historic and Geological Society, Board Member, 2000-2003
	Bear Creek Historic Society, Charter Member, 1999-2001
	Awarded a SEAMS grant to integrate service learning into curriculum, 1997
	Awarded Allen Allen Faculty Excellence Award, 1996
Service award for volunteer work, Luzerne County Community College, 1994

Presentations	• Co-presented paper at 16 th Annual International Conference on Technology and Education, Edinburgh, Scotland, 1999
	• " Incorporating Service Learning into the Curriculum", Staff Development Seminar, Luzerne County Community College, 1998
	• Presented paper at 21 st International Conference Improving University Teaching, Nottingham, England, 1996
	• "The Psychological Aspects of Architecture", Staff Development Seminar, Luzerne County Community College, 1996
	• Co-presented paper at 13 th Annual International Conference on Technology and Education, New Orleans, LA, 1996

Highlights	• 15 year association as an architectural design consultant for architecture firm
	• More than 20 years as a college instructor and director of architectural engineering
	• 10 years experience providing consultation to college administration in the redesign of facilities and architectural services
	• 3 years experience in master planning and managing a $35 million construction project